

HUGENOTE KOLLEGE PROGRAMME FACT SHEET

Qualification: Bachelor of Social Work (BSW)

Programme Description:

The aim of the Bachelor of Social Work degree is to provide well-rounded education that prepares graduates to effectively engage with people on micro-, mezo- and macro levels within a dynamic socio-political context. The qualification is designed to equip graduates to engage people in problem-solving, promote social change and development, social cohesion and the empowerment and liberation of people. The programme is underscored by principles of respect for human dignity and diversity, social justice, balancing human rights and its corollary duties and collective responsibilities.

The Huguenote Kollege's mission is to contribute to the holistic healing and development of communities. The Bachelor's Degree of Social Work was therefore designed to provide students with a knowledge base, understanding and skills to work within partnerships and networks while maintaining the ethos of human dignity, transparency, equal rights and harmonious relationships. This requires that they will integrate faith, knowledge and skills so as to nurture and enhance the awareness of the self and others in practice.

Career Opportunities:

Social Worker in the public-, non-profit – and occupational sector and in private practice.
